- Your logo/website link posted onscreen during your spot and in the YouTube description, plus an announcement in our weekly newsletter.
- A dedicated landing page to capture potential leads.

What's The Process?

How Go I Get Selected?

- Apply for an Audition. Fill out the attached application and submit with your audition fee: APPLY HERE
- Schedule Your Initial Audition. Schedule your 30-minute love reading/audition with a Sirius Joy Agent. Your audition will be rated by the SJ Agent based on specific criteria set by Sensei Christopher.
- Callbacks. If you meet the initial criteria, you will advance to the final round! For callbacks, you would schedule another 30-minute love reading/audition with a Sirius Joy Executive/Cast Member for final review.
- Casting. If callbacks are a success, you will be invited to become a Practitioner of the Week! Our team will then coordinate with you on dates, marketing assets, and landing page information.

What's This Landing Page About?

Our research has shown that way too many potential clients leave a website before booking a session, leading to lost opportunity.

We believe there is a way to better capture potential clients by simply registering their interest without commitment.

We do this by directing traffic to a custom landing page we build exclusively for you. It will include your infomercial plus any additional information that will pique their curiosity even more.

On the site will be a simple registration form. They will then receive an automatic email with a warm welcome, your website info, and a special code (usually SIRIUSJOY) for anything you wanted to offer.

We then pass on these qualified leads to you—a much more valuable list for you personally to market to for conversion.

Rather than directing them to your site where you likely experience uncaptured website hits, this is an amazing opportunity to build your customer base.

And don't worry, when submitting the registration, they're also acknowledging their consent. From a Step 0 i-protect foundational approach, transparency and integrity are our priority

Can I Select Who I Audition With?

Unfortunately, no. Auditions will be assigned based on calendar and agent availability. For callbacks, there are no guarantees, but if it's in the stars, it may just be with Christopher himself!

As soon as we receive your application, we'll schedule your audition within one week and can have you advertised in as little as 30 days from approval!

What's the Cost?

- Application Fee: $99

- Advertising campaign fee: $99
